ABOUT THE ARTIST

Cellist Zlatomir Fung burst onto the scene as the first American in four decades (and youngest musician ever) to win First Prize at the International Tchaikovsky Competition Cello Division. Subsequent accolades, critical acclaim and standing ovations at performances around the world have established him as one of the preeminent cellists of our time. Astounding audiences with his boundless virtuosity and exquisite sensitivity, the 25-year-old has already proven himself a star among the next generation of world-class musicians.

In the 2024/25 season, Fung gives recitals in New York City, Boston, and St. Louis, and performs the complete Bach Cello Suites at Mechanics Hall in Worcester, and also in Arcata, California. He joins the orchestras in Rochester (NY), San Antonio (TX) and Billings (MT), among others. Internationally, he performs in Europe and Asia with the London Philharmonic, Barcelona Symphony and others, and offers a recital tour of Italy. Later this month, Signum Records releases Fung's debut album, a collection of opera fantasies and transcriptions for cello and piano.

Fung served as Artist-in-Residence with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra for the 2023/24 season; recent debut appearances include the New York Philharmonic, Cleveland Orchestra, Orchestre National de Lille, and BBC Philharmonic, as well as Baltimore, Dallas, Detroit, Seattle, and Kansas City symphonies. Fung was a Borletti-Buitoni Trust Fellowship Winner in 2022. He performs on a circa 1735 cello by Domenico Montagnana, on loan from a generous benefactor, and the 1696 "Lord Aylesford" Strad, on loan from the Nippon Music Foundation.
